PULASKI, TENN.,

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 5, 1866.

WANTED!

Subscribers to the Citizen, in large numbers, and with plenty of money—that is—$4 apiece.

LAW CARD.—Jno. C. Brown and Jas. McCallum, Esq's., have a card in this paper, to which we refer all litigants and disputants.

Books.—For almost any style or variety of Reading, go to Osborn & Co's., West side public square. School-books, toy-books, histories, poems, novels, &c.; &c., together with all the valuable monthly, weekly and daily periodicals and papers. Among the latter will be the Citizen.

Excitement in Mexico.—For interesting matter, hunt up the advertisement in this paper headed as above. It is a trite but true saying, and one worthy to be remembered, that "a dollar saved is a dollar made," and every man is interested in learning how to save the dollar. The advertisement alluded to will give you that valuable information.

Ezell & Edmundson.—It is enough to say of this firm, that it is composed of our old fellow citizens PINK EZELL and ED EDMUNDSON—the one a life-long citizen here, a well-known merchant and an honest man, and the other, his peer in all things, but better known here as a Druggist of late years. We are sure that no one could desire to trade with gentlemen more accommodating and clever than they. See their card.

TREPPARD & Co.—It will be some gratification to our readers here at home to learn that all their wants in the way of Hardware, Tinware, Coal Oil Lamps and Oil, etc., etc., can be supplied at the new store, on the North-east corner public square, by TREPPARD & Co. Tom. TREPPARD, the principal, or senior, partner in the house, has been long and well known in this community. All kinds of repairing or manufacturing in tin, copper or sheet-iron, done to order promptly. See their advertisement.

Architect.—The card of M. D. Le Moine, architect, Nashville, Tenn., may be found in this paper. We hope to see him in our town frequently during the coming spring and summer, modeling and remodeling the various public and private buildings to be erected or renovated. We hope to see his services called into requisition on our jail, and college, as well as on the elegant store houses to be built next summer.

School.—How can we more essentially benefit our country, than by instructing and giving a proper direction to the minds of our youth. How beautifully it has been said, "If a tree bear no blossoms in Spring, ye need expect no fruit in autumn," and what an eloquent appeal it is in behalf of proper education in the spring of life.

Mrs. Dr. Batte and Miss Sallie Sharpe will open a school next Monday, at Dr. Batte's residence, and will receive pupils large or small. Mrs. Batte will also take a few scholars on the Piano.

The Law.—If you want to sue anybody, or prosecute anybody; or if anybody wants to sue you or prosecute you or anybody else or anything, read the card of Messrs. Rutledge and Reed, in this paper. They are clever young men and will give prompt attention to business.

Maj. Gen. Gustavus W. Smith, who resigned the position of Street Superintendent of New York to come South, and who resigned his commission in the Confederate army, two years afterwards, has appeared in New York as the agent for the National Express Company.

ARE THERE ANY?

Are there any public-spirited men in Giles County who wish to subscribe for a county paper? We would like to meet with them, if there are any such. We have dreamed about such a man—and our fancy has painted a splendid portrait of him. We request him to come to our office, that we may see if he is "all our fancy painted him."

"Br. Does."—Now, ladies and gentlemen, permit us to introduce to you the wonderfully and fearfully made "Br. Does."

He keeps a drug-store near the South-east corner public square, as long as anybody, partly as anybody and clever as anybody.

Read Dr. Burnett's advertisement, and if you need anything in his line, he'll fix it up right.

Moffatt & Cox.—It may not be generally known that Messrs Moffatt & Cox have moved to Martin's old corner, and it is important that people should keep posted in these little matters. In order to do this they have put an advertisement in this paper announcing the removal, and setting forth their aims and objects, as well as their goods and wares, somewhat in detail. We all know the Mr. Cox that used to be of the firm of Roy, Harris & Cox. Well, this is the same Cox, at the same place, at the same old trade—cutting tail and treating folk—all folks—just as cleverly and politely as old Santa Claus does children Christmas-eves. He loads them down with nice things, and new things, and good things.

Dr. Grant & ABERNATHY.—It will be seen by reference to their card in this paper that Drs. GRANT & ABERNATHY have associated themselves in the practice of medicine and surgery. It may perhaps be useless for us to commend them to the people of this community, by whom they are so well known, and so highly esteemed, but we feel inclined to add our testimony to that of all others who belonged to Brown's immortal old Brigade, during the war, to the efficient services rendered and valuable experience enjoyed by them—the one as Surgeon of the old 32d and senior Surgeon of the Brigade, and the other as Surgeon of the old 3d. In Surgery they are acknowledged professionals, and they certainly can have no superiors in this country.

This much we say voluntarily, because we know these men so well, and esteem them so highly. Having served in the same brigade with both, and in the same regiment with one of them, aside from our long acquaintance with them at home before and since the war, we have had the best opportunity to study and know the men thoroughly.

Stratton, Pointer & Co.—We invite attention to the card of the above firm, in this number of the Citizen, and take pleasure in recommending the house as one worthy of patronage and confidence. We know the parties personally, and they are experienced business men, as well as thorough gentlemen in every sense of the word. Maj. Roy, Capt. CHENEY, Col. STRATTON, Capt. POINTER. Where can you find a stronger combination of business qualifications and respectability?

THE OFFICE of Thos. Martin, President of the Central Southern Railroad, is kept in the counting room of Messrs. Moffatt & Cox. Those who have orders to receive freight cars, or to receive the stock of the Railroad, or to receive any other business, should call on the office, where he can personally be seen. Address, Moffatt & Cox.

The Elite Art Gallery.

In framing Artists, art hath thus succeeded, To make some good but others to succeed.

Who does not cherish as an invaluable, priceless jewel, a true likeness of friends and loved ones? Who could set price on a durable, life-like picture of a wife, husband, son or daughter? What would a man take in exchange for a natural portrait of his beloved parent or his gentle sister? What inexpressible comfort is it to have always near your heart the shadow of your sweetheart, with her soft eyes always up-turned to yours and an inexpressible smile of sweetness always playing about her ruby lips!

Her eyes, her lips, her cheeks, her shape, her features seem to be drawn by love's own hand—by Java's flames in love.

These reflections are suggested by a visit to the Art Gallery of Mr. Murphy. His pictures taken on pearl, and painted in oil, are truly "the most remarkably life-like portraits ever made," while all of his pictures are correct in tone, and perfect in finish. It is abundantly worth the trouble to any lady or gentleman to spend half an hour in his gallery.

THE RAILROAD.

On the night of the 26th ult., at the same time Pulaski was visited by the tornado, several bridges on the Nashville and Decatur railroad were swept away, and no trains have run through since that time.

The consequence is we have had but two or three mails in ten days or more, and freights for this place and points further south, have accumulated at Nashville.

The gap in the road extends from Lynchville to Elk River. That prince of conductors, Pitts Brown, was caught within the gap, and has been spending the week with us. He informs us that trains will run through again in a few days.

These mail derangements have interfered with us in making up news items for this paper. We hope to chronicle the complete repair of the road and the regular arrival of mails by our next issue.

It is believed that Congress will pass a bill to give a bounty to the volunteers of 1861.

INSURANCE.—The old, reliable PHENIX, is advertised by a responsible and gentlemanly local agent, in to-day's paper. If you wish to be insured, call on Dr. Edmundson.

MISCELLANEOUS.

SCHOOL.

THE next session of my School will commence on MONDAY THE 6th INST.

I will charge $25.00 per session of Five Months, $5.00 to be paid, in advance, at the end of each month.

I will Teach in a Comfortable Room in the house in which I now live.

HYMENIAL RERORT.

Here love his golden shaft employs, here lights his constant lamp and waves his purple wings— Reigns here and revels.

MARRIED on Christmas morning, at the residence of the bride's mother near Lynchville, WALLACE RUTLEDGE Esq'r. of this place, to Miss WAGNER MARKS.

Of human bliss—a paradise below!

WALLACE, you are one of God's noblemen! You didn't forget the oft neglected printer even in the most important and eventful hour of your life. How prone men are to forget others, even their best friend, in the hour of bliss! We thank you, WALLACE! May you and your "own fair bride" live a perpetual honeymoon.

On the 27th ult., at Elkton, Dr. JAS. A. BOWERS, formerly of Gen. Cheatham's staff, to Mrs. ELIZABETH M. HARNET, both of the town of Elkton.

You forgot us, Doctor. But it's natural, We'll forgive you. You couldn't think of anybody else just then, could you? May you and the widow live forever.

On the 27th, at the residence of the bride's mother, near Elkton, Mr. THOS. S. WESTMORELAND to Miss MARY E. BRIDGEMAN.

You forgot us, too, and we can never forgive you. How often have you told us you wouldn't? Ah! Thomas, Thomas! Well, we trust you may prove more true to your beloved and lovely bride than you have to this old thrown off friend of yours.

On the 19th ult., Mr. W. P. Struggs to Miss Laura Upshaw, both of this county.

Same day, Mr. A. W. King to Miss M. A. E. Dunnevin, of this county.

On the 3d inst., J. L. Abernathy to Miss Martha R. Grubbs.

On the same day, David R. Shores, to Miss Sarah M. Hanna.

To insure the publication of Marriages, parties should hand in a notice of the transaction. We will take pleasure in publishing all marriage notices, free of charge.—We design making this part of our paper quite interesting.

The Elite Art Gallery,

OPENED IN PULASKI, TENN.

A PHOTOGRAPHER who understands his business, (from North of Huntsville, Mo. on Co. Ala.) has opened his Elite Art Gallery in Pulaski, and very respectfully tenders his services to the generous and enlightened people of Giles.

Size, Coloring, etc.

In this Celebrated Establishment are made those beautiful pictures of Every Style, and of All Sizes, from Life-size to the smallest Finger-Ring Miniature, and so elegantly colored in Oil, that the Hair, Eyes, Complexion and Expression can be so well preserved by the Artist that the Likeness is as once identified (almost) "a living creature."

"PEARL MINIATURES."

These Portraits are Rich, Complete and Beautiful. They can be highly colored and given a delicacy of complexion not possessed by the Painted Lady, or even the Pure Alabama Whiteness of a Babe. In this regard only are these little pictures inferior. Of the myriads of pictures taken in the various parts of the State, it is unquestionably the prettiest and most remarkable. If like-like Portraits the world ever saw. It is Elegant.

Photographs, Vignettes, Cartes de Visite, etc.

Taken in the latest, most popular and approved style known to the art of drawing, and produced by all other kinds known to the profession, will also compare favorably with any Holographic specimens of Art in achievement. If like you see the folly of expenditure on railroads and at household time and risk of life to distant cities or foreign countries. They have the middle tint—Rich in tone, Complete in detail, Bold in features, and as to finish and durability, there is no question of their Superiority.

OLD PICTURES, ETC.

Any kind copied to any size. I also take pictures of individuals on Horse-back or in Buggies, Playing at Games, Groups, and Schools, Hotels in Uniform, Masons and all (Old Pulaski Regulars, etc., and colored, if desired, by the most Accomplished Artist in this country.

MONEY.

If Cash is paid in advance for pictures not good, they shall be re-taken, or the amount refunded.

I warrant Every Picture, and Guarantee Satisfaction to Every Customer, or Make No Charge.

IMPORTANCE OF PICTURES.

If you want likenesses for your friends and relatives, come at once, for sickness or some other hidden monster may forever deprive you from another opportunity so favorable. It is a privilege to have likenesses of dear ones whether we see them again or not. These little Keepsakes are jewels. Many who read this will testify to the truth in these lines, for they like myself in this respect, feel and have felt the want of miniatures to recall the features of dear brothers who fell in battle or were otherwise separated from the altar of our beloved South—Fond and peaceful recollections to their precious memories.

Hues, Colors, Dressing, &c.

White, Gray and Black, take w. g. and black. Crimson, Orange, Brown, Green and deep Red, take w. g. and black. Yellow, Pink, Purple and Blue, take w. g. and black. Checked and Flowered goods take well enough. Dark Drapery is (rather) most pleasing.

PRICES.

Photographs, $4 per doz.; $3.50 per half doz. Pearls, $12; $15 and $20 apiece. Other pictures at various rates. Double price for 2nd children.
